APPLICATION TO AUTHORIZE THE BRINGING OF A CLASS ACTION AND TO APPOINT THE STATUS OF REPRESENTATIVE PLAINTIFF (ARTICLES 571 AND FOLLOWING C.C.P.)

TO ONE OF THE HONOURABLE JUDGES OF THE SUPERIOR COURT, SITTING IN AND FOR THE DISTRICT OF MONTREAL, THE APPLICANT STATES:

1. The Applicant seeks authorization to institute a class action on behalf of the following class of which she is a member:

Class:

All consumers who, since July 26, 2019, purchased an extended warranty on goods from the Amazon, Wayfair or Home Depot website(s).

(hereinafter the "Class")

or any other class to be determined by the Court;

THE PARTIES:

- 2. The Applicant is a consumer within the meaning of Quebec's Consumer Protection Act (the "CPA");
- 3. The Amazon Defendants (collectively referred to herein as "Amazon") operate retail websites (www.amazon.ca and www.amazon.com) for physical and digital goods and services, as it appears from the extract of the Quebec Enterprises Register communicated as Exhibit P-1;
- Defendant Wayfair LLC (hereinafter "Wayfair") operates retail websites (www.wayfair.ca and www.wayfair.com) for goods and claims to be one of the world's largest home retailers, as it appears from Exhibit P-2;
- Defendant Home Depot of Canada Inc. (hereinafter "Home Depot") operates physical stores and retail websites (including www.homedepot.ca) for goods and services, as it appears from the extract of the Quebec Enterprises Register communicated as Exhibit P-3;
- 6. During the Class Period, Amazon, Wayfair and Home Depot sold and continue to sell consumer electronics and home appliances and – for an additional cost – they sell extended warranties for these items;

7. The sale of extended warranties to Quebec consumers is rigorously governed by the CPA, which defines an extended warranty contract as follows:

1(e.1) "contract of additional warranty"	1(e.1) « contrat de garantie
means a contract under which a merchant	supplémentaire » : un contrat en vertu achète ou qui fait réparer ce bien;

8. The law imposes on merchants selling extended warranties to consumers in Quebec the obligation to inform consumers of the existence and nature of Quebec's legal warranty provided for in sections 37 and 38 CPA before proposing the purchase of a contract that includes an additional warranty on goods:

228.1 Before proposing to a consumer to purchase a contract that includes an additional warranty on goods, the merchant must inform the consumer orally and in writing, in the manner prescribed by regulation, of the existence and nature of the warranty provided for in sections 37 and 38.	228.1 Le commerçant doit, avant de proposer au consommateur de conclure, à titre onéreux, un contrat comprenant une garantie supplémentaire relative à un bien, l'informer verbalement et par écrit, de la manière prescrite par règlement, de l'existence et du contenu de la garantie prévue aux articles 37 et 38.
In such a case, the merchant must also inform the consumer orally of the existence and duration of any manufacturer's warranty that comes with the goods. At the request of the consumer, the merchant must also explain to the consumer orally how to examine all of the other elements of the warranty. 9. The Regulation respecting the application of the Consumer Protection Act, P-40.1, r. 3 (the "Regulation"), provides the specific language that the merchant must use to inform consumers of Quebec's legal warranty:

91.9 Before proposing the conclusion of a contract for valuable consideration including an additional warranty on goods, the merchant must give the consumer a document in paper form containing only the following compulsory notice: "NOTICE CONCERNING THE LEGAL WARRANTY	91.9 Avant de proposer de conclure à titre onéreux un contrat comprenant une garantie supplémentaire relative à un bien, le commerçant doit remettre au consommateur, sur support papier, un document sur lequel apparaît exclusivement l'avis obligatoire suivant:

10. Section 91.12 of the Regulation provides for how the notice must be given for online purchases, such as the purchases made by the Class members on the Defendants' websites: www.amazon.ca, www.amazon.com, www.wayfair.ca, www.wayfair.com and www.homedepot.ca:

- 11. As more fully detailed herein, Amazon, Wayfair and Home Depot are retail giants who sell extended warranties to consumers in Quebec without ever notifying them of Quebec's legal warranty, thereby completely ignoring their obligations under the CPA and the Regulation and, as such, are deemed to have committed a prohibited practice under section 228 CPA;
- 12. It appears that the other major retailers selling extended warranties in Quebec do adequately provide the required notice under the CPA, meaning that Amazon, Wayfair and Home Depot's violations can only be qualified as intentional and insouciant. The Applicant communicates screen captures of the CPA notice provided by the following major retailers on their Canadian websites en liasse herewith as Exhibit P-4: www.walmart.ca, www.costco.ca, www.bestbuy.ca, www.renodepot.com, www.rona.ca, www.staples.ca and www.thebrick.com, www.thesource.ca;
- 13. The purpose of the present class action is to ensure that Amazon, Wayfair and

Home Depot comply with the CPA and to obtain compensatory and punitive damages for the class members;

I. CONDITIONS REQUIRED TO AUTHORIZE THIS CLASS ACTION AND TO APPOINT THE STATUS OF REPRESENTATIVE PLAINTIFF (S. 575 C.C.P.):

A) THE FACTS ALLEGED APPEAR TO JUSTIFY THE CONCLUSIONS SOUGHT:

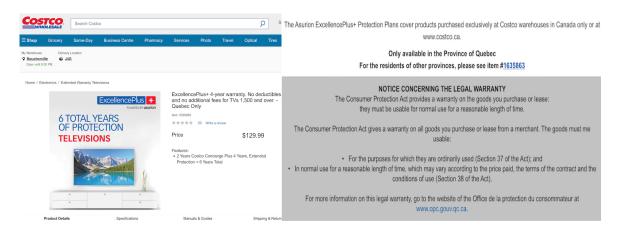

- 14. The Applicant is a consumer who has been purchasing goods on the www.amazon.ca website for several years;
- On June 14, 2022, the Applicant purchased the "Numark Scratch | Two-Channel DJ Scratch Mixer for Serato DJ Pro (included) With Innofader Crossfader, DVS license, 6 Effect Selectors and 24-Bit Sound" (the "DJ Mixer") for $549.00 plus taxes, as it appears from the invoice communicated as Exhibit P-5;
- 16. The Applicant purchased the DJ Mixer as a birthday present for her husband;
- 17. On the DJ Mixer product page, Amazon also offered a "3 Year PC Peripheral Protection Plan" (the "Extended Warranty") for $59.99 and attracts consumers to purchasing this Extended Warranty by using blue and red colour fonts, as it appears from Exhibit P-6 (this screen capture was taken on July 26, 2022 as a simulation of the Applicant's purchase process for this item);
- According to Amazon's website, the Extended Warranty includes the following extended coverage: "... Malfunctions covered after the manufacturer's warranty", as it appears from a screen capture of the pop-up that appears after clicking on the blue "3 Year PC Peripheral Protection Plan" hyperlink on the product page (https://www.amazon.ca/dp/B07SNQXMLZ/ref=cm_sw_r_api_i_TY3PXDH4N0BY5 9VV43S6_0) communicated as Exhibit P-7;
- 19. The Applicant purchased the Extended Warranty from Amazon and paid Amazon an additional $59.99 for the Extended Warranty, as it appears from Exhibit P-8;
- 20. The Applicant purchased these items on www.amazon.ca using her credit card in a single transaction (she purchased the extended warranty by checking off the box on the DJ Mixer product page); Amazon then charged the Applicant's credit card for these items separately, as it appears from a redacted version of her credit card transactions communicated as Exhibit P-9;
- 21. On June 14, 2022, the Applicant received a separate email from "Asurion Protection Plan Team", communicated as Exhibit P-10. The Extended Warranty that she purchased from Amazon's wesbite is "from Asurion Consumer Solutions of Canada Corp" (hereinafter "Asurion");
- 22. The email from Asurion contains a blue hyperlink where the Applicant can "Download terms & conditions" of the Extended Warranty. The Applicant communicates a copy of the terms of the Extended Warranty as Exhibit P-11;

- 23. The extended warranty document (Exhibit P-11) is titled "Contract of Additional Warranty" (i.e. the same term used by the Quebec legislator at section 1(e) CPA);
- 24. At no point in time prior to (or even after) her purchase, did Amazon refer the Applicant (or any Class member) to the notice required pursuant to section 91.9 of the Regulation despite clearly selling her a contract of additional warranty, contrary to section 91.12 of the Regulation. As such, Amazon committed a prohibited business practice within the meaning sections 228 and 228.1 CPA;
- 25. The Applicant emphasizes that she contracted directly with Amazon and paid Amazon directly for the "3 Year PC Peripheral Protection Plan" offered by Asurion (as it appears from Exhibits P-8 and P-9);
- 26. It is worth here noting that the Asurion extended warranty is also sold on the Walmart.ca and Costco.ca websites, but that the Walmart and Costco websites do expressly refer consumers to the notice required under section 91.9 of the Regulation, as it appears from Exhibit P-1 (relevant portions reproduced below):

Source: https://www.walmart.ca/en/ip/protection-for-tvs-priced-300-39999/6000201680995

Source: https://www.costco.ca/excellenceplus%2b-4-year-warranty.-no-deductibles-and-no-additional-fees-for-tvs-1%2c500-and-over.---quebec-only.product.4000025656.html

- 27. Therefore, there is no doubt that, unlike its competitors who do comply with the notice requirement of section 228.1 CPA, Amazon intentionally fails to inform consumers of an important fact and must be held accountable;
- 28. Pursuant to section 272 CPA, the Applicant is entitled to and hereby claims from Amazon a reimbursement of $59.99, as well as $100 in punitive damages, because Amazon intentionally commits a prohibited business practice (violation of s. 228.1 CPA and the Regulation). The Applicant also seeks injunctive relief ordering Amazon to cease the prohibited practice;
- 29. Punitive damages are also appropriate and important in this case, especially when comparing Amazon's conduct with that of other major retailers in Quebec selling extended warranties to consumers and who do respect the notice requirement of section 228.1 CPA and the Regulation when they sell extended warranties online to consumers residing in Quebec (see Exhibit P-1);
- 30. Selling extended warranties is extremely profitable for merchants such as Amazon, as highlighted in an article published on CAA Quebec's website titled "Garantie prolongée : à prendre ou à laisser?", communicated as Exhibit P-12:

« Selon le magazine Protégez-vous, de 40 à 75 % des appareils électroniques seraient vendus avec une garantie prolongée au Québec!

L'employeur en profite également. Selon le magazine américain Consumer Reports, les taux de profit des commerçants sur ces produits dérivés varient de 40 à 80 % ! Pas étonnant : la majorité des biens tombent en panne seulement une fois la garantie expirée. »

31. Amazon's patrimonial situation is significant enough that punitive damages of $100 per member is appropriate in the circumstances;

Wayfair and Home Depot

32. Although the Applicant does not have a legal relationship with the other Defendants herein, it is well established law that she has standing to name Wayfair and Home Depot as Defendants in the present class action authorization application, given that the situations of the other Class Members are identical visà-vis Wayfair and Home Depot;

Wayfair

 Indeed, when selling its extended warranties on its websites (www.wayfair.com and www.wayfair.ca), Wayfair fails to inform class members about Quebec's legal warranty, as it appears from a simulation of the purchase process on www.wayfair.ca communicated as Exhibit P-13;

- 34. On its webpage titled "Protection Plans", Wayfair states: (https://www.wayfair.ca/help/article/protection_plans?rtype=7&redir=extended+war ranty) "If your product also has a manufacturer's warranty, coverage for product defects and mechanical or electrical failures begins the day the manufacturer's warranty expires", as it appears from Exhibit P-14;
- 35. This same webpage (Exhibit P-14) states that Wayfair sells at least 3 different brands of extended warranties to Quebec consumers, namely: Warrantech, Allstate and Uniters. A copy of Wayfair's extended warranty titled "EXTENDED WARRANTY CONTRACT – Canada" is communicated as Exhibit P-15;

Home Depot

- 36. Similarly, Home Depot also fails to inform Class members about Quebec's legal warranty when selling its extended warranties on its website (and presumably in its stores), as it appears from a simulation of the purchase process on www.homedepot.ca communicated herewith as Exhibit P-16;
- 37. According to its "Terms and Conditions" webpage, the extended warranty sold by Home Depot is called "Allstate Protection Plans", which is "serviced by square trade, an Allstate company", Applicant communicating Exhibit P-17;
- 38. The same damages can therefore be claimed from Wayfair and Home Depot pursuant to s. 272 CPA on behalf of each class member, namely the reimbursement of the price paid for the extended warranty and $100 each in punitive damages. The same injunctive relief is also sought against Wayfair and Home Depot, ordering them to cease the prohibited practice;

B) THE CLAIMS OF THE MEMBERS OF THE CLASS RAISE IDENTICAL, SIMILAR OR RELATED ISSUES OF LAW OR FACT:

- 39. The Court of Appeal has recently ruled that a violation of section 228.1 CPA and the Regulation concerning the notice requirement (i.e. whether the Defendants failed in their duty to inform prior to selling an extended warranty to consumers) requires an objective analysis and is not analysed from one consumer to another: either the Defendants comply with the requirements of the law or they commit a prohibited practice within the meaning of section 228 CPA;
- 40. The evidence filed in support of the present application leaves no doubt that the Defendants systemically fail to comply with s. 228.1 CPA;
- 41. The recourses of the class members raise identical, similar or related questions of fact or law, namely:
 - a) Did Amazon, Wayfair or Home Depot fail in their duty to inform in their representations to Quebec consumers regarding the extended warranties they sell, in violation of section 228.1 CPA?

- b) In the absence of adequate information when representing the extended warranties to Quebec consumers, are the latter entitled to the remedies provided for under section 272 CPA and, if so, which ones?
- c) Should Amazon, Wayfair or Home Depot pay compensatory and/or punitive damages to class members and in what amount?
- d) Should an injunctive remedy be ordered to prohibit Amazon, Wayfair and Home Depot from continuing to perpetrate their prohibited conduct, as well as their concealment of important facts?

C) THE COMPOSITION OF THE CLASS

- 42. The composition of the Class makes it difficult or impracticable to apply the rules for mandates to take part in judicial proceedings on behalf of others or for consolidation of proceedings;
- 43. The Applicant conservatively estimates the number of persons included in the class to be in the thousands or more;
- 44. The present action includes all extended warranty brands sold to Class Members by the Defendants, including but not limited to: (i) on Amazon: Asurion, Fire TV (by SquareTrade) and SmartGuard (AMT Warranty); (ii) on Wayfair: Warrantech, Allstate and Uniters; and (iii) from Home Depot: Allstate Protection Plans, serviced by square trade;
- 45. The names and addresses of all persons included in the Class are not known to the Applicant, however, are all in the possession of Amazon, Wayfair and Home Depot since they receive the payment for the purchase of the extended warranties;
- 46. Class members are very numerous and are dispersed across the province;
- 47. These facts demonstrate that it would be impractical, if not impossible, to contact each and every Class member to obtain mandates and to join them in one action;
- 48. In these circumstances, a class action is the only appropriate procedure for all of the members of the Class to effectively pursue their respective rights and have access to justice without overburdening the court system;

D) THE CLASS MEMBER REQUESTING TO BE APPOINTED AS REPRESENTATIVE PLAINTIFF IS IN A POSITION TO PROPERLY REPRESENT THE CLASS MEMBERS

- 49. The Applicant requests that she be appointed the status of representative plaintiff for the following main reasons:
 - a) She is a member of the Class and has a personal interest in seeking the conclusions that he proposes herein;

- b) She is competent, in that he has the potential to be the mandatary of the action if it had proceeded under article 91 of the Code of Civil Procedure;
- c) Her interests are not antagonistic to those of other Class members;
- 50. Additionally, the Applicant respectfully adds that:
 - a) She has mandated her attorney to file the present application for the sole purpose of having her rights, as well as the rights of the other members, recognized and protected, and so that Amazon, Wayfair and Home Depot comply with the law in Quebec;
 - b) She has the time, energy, will and determination to assume all the responsibilities incumbent upon her in order to diligently carry out the action;
 - c) She cooperates and will continue to fully cooperate with her attorney;
 - d) She has read this Application prior to its court filing;
 - e) She understands the nature of the action;

II. DAMAGES

- 51. A breach of s. 228.1 CPA gives rise to an absolute presumption of prejudice under s. 272 CPA;
- 52. In light of the foregoing, the Applicant claims damages on her behalf and on behalf of each class member, pursuant to s. 272 CPA, in the aggregate amount of the purchase price paid to the Defendants for the extended warranties, plus $100 per member on account of punitive damages;

III. NATURE OF THE ACTION AND CONCLUSIONS SOUGHT

- 53. The action that the Applicant wishes to institute on behalf of the members of the Class is an action in damages, punitive damages and injunctive relief;
- 54. The conclusions that the Applicant wishes to introduce by way of an originating application are:

ALLOW the class action of the Representative Plaintiff and all class members against the Defendants;

ORDER the Defendants to cease engaging in any prohibited practices and to cease failing to disclose important information when selling extending warranties;

CONDEMN the Defendants to pay the Class members an amount to be determined on the merits pursuant to s. 272 CPA and ORDER that this condemnation be subject to collective recovery;

CONDEMN the Defendants to pay the Class members $100.00 per member on account of punitive damages and ORDER that this condemnation be subject to collective recovery;

CONDEMN the Defendants to pay interest and the additional indemnity on the above sums according to law from the date of service of the Application to authorize a class action and ORDER that this condemnation be subject to collective recovery;

ORDER the Defendants to deposit in the office of this Court the totality of the sums which forms part of the collective recovery, with interest and costs;

ORDER that the claims of individual Class members be the object of collective liquidation if the proof permits and alternately, by individual liquidation;

CONDEMN the Defendants to bear the costs of the present action including the cost of exhibits, notices, the cost of management of claims and the costs of experts, if any, including the costs of experts required to establish the amount of the collective recovery orders;

IV. JURISDICTION

55. The Applicant requests that this class action be exercised before the Superior Court of the province of Quebec, in the district of Montreal, because she is a consumer and resides in this district.

FOR THESE REASONS, MAY IT PLEASE THE COURT:

- 1. AUTHORIZE the bringing of a class action in the form of an originating application in damages, punitive damages and for injunctive relief;
- 2. APPOINT the Applicant the status of Representative Plaintiff of the persons included in the Class herein described as:

Class:

All consumers who, since July 26, 2019, purchased an extended warranty on goods from the Amazon, Wayfair or Home Depot website(s).

or any other Class to be determined by the Court;

- 3. IDENTIFY the principal questions of fact and law to be treated collectively as the following:
 - a) Did Amazon, Wayfair or Home Depot fail in their duty to inform in their representations to Quebec consumers regarding the extended warranties they sell, in violation of section 228.1 CPA?

- b) In the absence of adequate information when representing the extended warranties to Quebec consumers, are the latter entitled to the remedies provided for under section 272 CPA and, if so, which ones?
- c) Should Amazon, Wayfair, or Home Depot pay compensatory and/or punitive damages to class members and in what amount?
- d) Should an injunctive remedy be ordered to prohibit Amazon, Wayfair and Home Depot from continuing to perpetrate their prohibited conduct, as well as their concealment of important facts?
- 4. IDENTIFY the conclusions sought by the class action to be instituted as being the following:
 - 1. ALLOW the class action of the Representative Plaintiff and all class members against the Defendants;
 - 2. ORDER the Defendants to cease engaging in any prohibited practices and to cease failing to disclose important information when selling extending warranties;
 - 3. CONDEMN the Defendants to pay the Class members an amount to be determined on the merits pursuant to s. 272 CPA and ORDER that this condemnation be subject to collective recovery;
 - 4. CONDEMN the Defendants to pay the Class members $100.00 per member on account of punitive damages and ORDER that this condemnation be subject to collective recovery;
 - 5. CONDEMN the Defendants to pay interest and the additional indemnity on the above sums according to law from the date of service of the Application to authorize a class action and ORDER that this condemnation be subject to collective recovery;
 - 6. ORDER the Defendants to deposit in the office of this Court the totality of the sums which forms part of the collective recovery, with interest and costs;
 - 7. ORDER that the claims of individual Class members be the object of collective liquidation if the proof permits and alternately, by individual liquidation;
 - 8. CONDEMN the Defendants to bear the costs of the present action including the cost of exhibits, notices, the cost of management of claims and the costs of experts, if any, including the costs of experts required to establish the amount of the collective recovery orders;

- ORDER the publication of a notice to the class members in accordance with article 579 C.C.P. pursuant to a further order of the Court, and ORDER the Defendants to pay for said publication costs;
- 6. FIX the delay of exclusion at thirty (30) days from the date of the publication of the notice to the members, date upon which the members of the Class that have not exercised their means of exclusion will be bound by any judgment to be rendered herein;
- 7. DECLARE that all members of the Class that have not requested their exclusion, be bound by any judgment to be rendered on the class action to be instituted in the manner provided for by the law;
- 8. RENDER any other order that this Honourable Court shall determine;
- 9. THE WHOLE with costs including publication fees.

The answer to the summons must include your contact information and, if you are represented by a lawyer, the lawyer's name and contact information.

Change of judicial district

You may ask the court to refer the originating Application to the district of your domicile or residence, or of your elected domicile or the district designated by an agreement with the plaintiff.

If the application pertains to an employment contract, consumer contract or insurance contract, or to the exercise of a hypothecary right on an immovable serving as your main residence, and if you are the employee, consumer, insured person, beneficiary of the insurance contract or hypothecary debtor, you may ask for a referral to the district of your domicile or residence or the district where the immovable is situated or the loss occurred. The request must be filed with the special clerk of the district of territorial jurisdiction after it has been notified to the other parties and to the office of the court already seized of the originating application.

Transfer of application to Small Claims Division

If you qualify to act as a plaintiff under the rules governing the recovery of small claims, you may also contact the clerk of the court to request that the application be processed according to those rules. If you make this request, the plaintiff's legal costs will not exceed those prescribed for the recovery of small claims.

Calling to a case management conference

Within 20 days after the case protocol mentioned above is filed, the court may call you to a case management conference to ensure the orderly progress of the proceeding. Failing this, the protocol is presumed to be accepted.
