APPLICATION FOR LEAVE TO ADDUCE RELEVANT EVIDENCE OF WAL-MART CANADA CORP.

(Article 574(3), Code of Civil Procedure, CQLR c C-25.01 (“CCP”))

TO THE HONOURABLE DOMINIQUE POULIN, J.S.C., ACTING AS THE DESIGNATED CASE MANAGEMENT JUDGE IN THE PRESENT CASE, THE DEFENDANT WAL-MART CANADA CORP. RESPECTFULLY SUBMITS THE FOLLOWING:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. In connection with the authorization hearing for this proposed class action, the Defendant Wal-Mart Canada Corp. (“Walmart”) seeks leave to adduce as relevant evidence the sworn statement of Anthony D’Agostino, Director of Merchandising Food Sourcing for Walmart (the “Affidavit”), which is communicated as Exhibit RW-1 as well as Exhibits AD-1 to AD-5 in support thereof.
2. The Affidavit is necessary and relevant for the Court to assess whether the criteria for class action authorization under article 575 CCP are met.
3. Specifically, paragraph 70 of the Authorization Application alleges that Walmart has offered for sale grocery products advertised as “Canadian”, “but which in fact are products of other countries.”¹ To support that allegation, the Applicant sent a bailiff to the Walmart store in Lasalle, Québec (the “Walmart Lasalle Store”) on September 9, 2025 to identify three products purportedly mislabelled as “Canadian”.
4. However, as explained in Mr. D’Agostino’s Sworn Statement and as appears from its exhibits, the Authorization Application’s allegations are incorrect or incomplete: (i) there are tens of thousands of different products offered for sale at the Walmart Lasalle Store, but the bailiff—after spending one hour in the store—only identified two (rather than three) purported examples of mislabelling; (ii) with respect to the first product identified by the bailiff ("Nutribarre Chocolat Val Nature"), the picture of the shelf label taken by the bailiff very clearly does not relate to that product and is instead for a different product ("Choco Noir Nugabar"), which is certified by Aliments du Québec; and (iii) with respect to the "Great Value arachides sucrées et salées" product identified by the bailiff, that product is manufactured by a Canadian company and can be either manufactured in Canada or the United States but, regardless of the place of manufacture, there is no price difference.

5. As a result, Walmart's proposed evidence is necessary and relevant to this Court's informed analysis of whether the facts alleged appear to justify the conclusions sought in accordance with art. 575(2) CCP, whether the claim raises identical, similar or related issues of law or fact in accordance with art. 575(1) CCP, as well as whether the proposed class definition is vague and imprecise in light of the isolated and incorrect allegations in the Authorization Application.

II. THE AUTHORIZATION APPLICATION

6. On or about September 10, 2025, the Applicant filed the Authorization Application, against several grocery retailers, namely: Loblaw Companies Limited and Loblaws Inc., Metro Inc., Groupe Adonis Inc., Sobeys Capital Incorporated, Giant Tiger Stores Limited and Walmart (collectively, the "Defendants").

7. The Authorization Application seeks to bring a class action on behalf of the following proposed class:

"All persons who purchased an item from one of the Defendants marked as Canadian or local (or containing the maple leaf or fleur-de-lis logo) which was imported from another country;"	"Toutes les personnes qui ont acheté un article auprès de l'une des défenderesses marqué comme canadien ou local (ou contenant le logo de la feuille d'érable ou de la fleur de lys) qui a été importé d'un autre pays;"

8. The Authorization Application alleges that the Defendants advertised and marketed certain imported grocery items as Canadian or local products through the use of Canadian or local images, logos, and slogans such as "Made in Canada", claiming that this constitutes misleading advertising.²
9. The Authorization Application further alleges that the Defendants breached sections 40, 41, 42, 219, 222(g), 228 and 239(a) of the Consumer Protection Act, sections 36 and 52 of the Competition Act, as well as obligations under the Civil Code of Québec.³

² Authorization Application, paras. 16-18 and 23-24.

³ Authorization Application, paras. 30-32.

10. The Authorization Application seeks compensatory damages and punitive damages (or, alternatively, reimbursement), as well as injunctive relief, against the Defendants.⁴ It claims that the Applicant would have never purchased these items or “paid such a high price” (though the Applicant never alleges having purchase a product at Walmart or the Walmart Lasalle Store).⁵

III. NECESSITY AND RELEVANCE OF THE PROPOSED EVIDENCE

11. Article 574(3) CCP provides that the Court may allow relevant evidence to be adduced at the authorization stage. Evidence that is necessary and relevant to assessing the criteria for authorization under article 575 CCP is permissible, and it forms part of the Court’s role to filter frivolous claims.
12. The evidence that Walmart seeks leave to adduce is necessary and relevant to evaluating whether the facts alleged against Walmart appear to justify the conclusions sought, whether there is a common question of fact or law, and whether the proposed class definition is too vague and imprecise to allow members to ascertain whether they are included in the proposed class.
13. The Authorization Application contains incorrect allegations and provides an incomplete picture of the factual context underlying the allegations against Walmart, particularly with respect to allegations that the Defendants deliberately engaged in false advertising and actively concealed the origin of products and assertions of the purported “systemic nature” of the Defendants’ maple-washing”.⁶
14. These allegations are based on isolated and incorrect claims that do not accurately reflect the circumstances surrounding the two specific products identified by the Applicant’s bailiff at the Walmart Lasalle Store.
15. It is therefore necessary and relevant that Walmart be permitted to place before the Court factual clarifications that complete the record and prevent a misleading or partial understanding of the allegations in the Authorization Application.

IV. SWORN STATEMENT OF ANTHONY D’AGOSTINO AND SUPPORTING EXHIBITS

16. The Affidavit rectifies certain incorrect allegations and provides the Court with a complete picture of the facts alleged (but omitted) by the Applicant.
17. First, the Affidavit explains that the Walmart Lasalle store offers for sale over approximately 60,000 products, including over approximately 10,000 different grocery items.

⁴ Authorization Application, para. 33.

⁵ Authorization Application, paras. 25 and 31.

⁶ Authorization Application, paras. 21, 26-27 and 47.

18. Accordingly, in that context, the two isolated examples purportedly found by the Applicant's bailiff fail to demonstrate a "practice" of "intentionally deceiving" consumers.⁷
19. Second, with respect to the "Nutribarre Chocolat Val Nature – Chocolat Noir et Cerises" identified by the Applicant's bailiff, the Authorization Application alleges that the product was displayed at the Walmart Lasalle Store with the mention of "Aliments du Québec" and "Aliments préparés au Québec", and "Q", whereas the product packaging indicates "Product of USA". This allegation relies solely on the photograph contained in Exhibit P-7.9.⁸
20. However, as further explained in the Affidavit, the Authorization Application is confusing two different products. The photograph in question shows that the "Nutribarre Chocolat Val Nature – Chocolat Noir et Cerises" product is not the product referenced in the shelf label for which the "Aliments du Québec" badge is used, and the shelf label concerns a different product, namely the "Choco Noir Nugabar". The "Choco Noir Nugabar" product is, in fact, certified under the Aliments du Québec program (Exhibits AD-1 and AD-2).
21. Third, with respect to the "Great Value arachides sucrées et salées" product, the Authorization Application alleges that the Walmart Lasalle Store displayed the product with a red maple leaf and the mention "Fabriqué au Canada", while the product itself indicates "Product of USA".⁹ This allegation relies on a single photograph and does not take into account the broader context of the product's sourcing and labeling.
22. The Affidavit explains that this product is supplied by the Canadian company Groupe Biscuits Leclerc Inc., headquartered in Québec, and may be manufactured in either Canada or the United States. Regardless of the manufacturing location, the product is offered for sale at the same price, so there is no premium or higher price charged for the product when manufactured in Canada versus the product when manufactured in the United States. There can therefore be no claim for damages based on this isolated allegation.
23. Accordingly, the necessary and relevant evidence Walmart seeks to adduce will rectify certain allegations and provide important factual context regarding the allegations made concerning the Walmart Lasalle Store.
24. Moreover, this evidence undermines the existence of any common issue of fact or law as required by article 575(1) CCP. It demonstrates that each case is unique and attributable to distinct circumstances, which may vary from one product to another with respect to Walmart. This evidence is therefore essential for the Court to determine whether the claims of the proposed class members genuinely raise identical, similar, or related questions of law or fact.

⁷ Authorization Application, paras, 1, 28 and 77.

⁸ Authorization Application, para. 70(a).

⁹ Authorization Application, para. 70(b).

25. It further shows that the claims in the Authorization Application concerning Walmart relate to one isolated product out of tens of thousands of different products offered for sale in a single store (i.e., the Walmart Lasalle Store). There is no widespread or systemic practice. As a result, the proposed class definition is too vague and imprecise to allow individuals to determine whether they are members of the class, as they do not know which products, at which times, in which stores are at issue.

V. CONCLUSION

26. Without leave to adduce the proposed relevant evidence, the Court will be deprived of the necessary and relevant facts that would inform its analysis of whether the Authorization Application (i) alleges facts that appear to justify the conclusions sought against Walmart, and (ii) demonstrates any common question. This is critical for the Court's role to filter out frivolous claims.
27. The proposed evidence is limited and circumscribed and therefore complies with the principle of proportionality.

FOR THESE REASONS, MAY IT PLEASE THIS HONORABLE COURT TO:

GRANT the present Application for leave to adduce relevant evidence;

AUTHORIZE the Defendant Wal-Mart Canada Corp. to file into the court record the sworn statement of Anthony D'Agostino as Exhibit RW-1, along with its supporting Exhibits AD-1, AD-2, AD-3, AD-4 and AD-5;

THE WHOLE without legal costs, save in case of contestation.

SWORN STATEMENT OF ANTHONY D'AGOSTINO
WAL-MART CANADA CORP.

I, the undersigned, Anthony D'Agostino, having my business address at 1940 Argentinia Road, Mississauga, Ontario, L5N 1P9, solemnly declare and make oath as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. I am the Director of Merchandising Food Sourcing for Wal-Mart Canada Corp. ("Walmart"). I have held this position since May 2024.
2. In this role, I am responsible for, among other things, private brand food sourcing strategies, managing supplier relationships, and negotiating vendor agreements.
3. I have read and reviewed the Application to authorize a class action dated September 10, 2025 (the "Authorization Application").

II. GROCERY PRODUCTS AT WALMART

4. Walmart operates retail store locations throughout Canada, including one located at 6797 boulevard Newman, Lasalle, Québec, H8N 3E4 (the "Walmart Lasalle store"), offering a wide range of goods, including grocery products.
5. The Walmart Lasalle store is a Walmart "Supercentre", which means that it offers for sale general merchandise items and it also has a full-service supermarket, including meat and poultry, frozen foods, packaged bread, daily products, garden produce, and fresh seafood.
6. At the Walmart Lasalle store, over approximately 60,000 different products are offered for sale, of which over approximately 10,000 are grocery products.

III. THE TWO PRODUCTS REFERENCED IN THE AUTHORIZATION APPLICATION

A. THE CONFUSION IN THE AUTHORIZATION APPLICATION CONCERNING THE “NUTRIBARRE CHOCOLAT VAL NATURE”

7. In paragraph 70(a) of the Authorization Application, it is stated that the “Nutribarre Chocolat Val Nature” is a “Product of USA” but that it was displayed with the mention of “Aliments du Québec” and “Aliments préparés au Québec”, and “Q”. This allegation relies upon Exhibit P-7.9, which is a bailiff’s report of visit to the Walmart Lasalle Store on September 9, 2025.
8. Upon closer examination, it is clear that the Authorization Application is confusing two different products. As appears from Exhibit P-7.9, the shelf label and the accompanying mention of “Aliments du Québec” and “Aliments préparés au Québec” refer to the “Choc noir Nugabar” product—a different product.
9. The “Choco Noir Nugabar” is identified by the product ID UPC 6404249241, as appears from Exhibit P-7.9. This product is certified as “Aliments préparés au Québec” (i.e., Foods prepared in Québec), as appears from an extract of Aliments du Québec’s website attached as Exhibit AD-1. Aliments du Québec is a not-for-profit organization founded in 1996 whose mission is to promote the Québec agri-food industry through the Aliments du Québec and Aliments préparés au Québec brands, as also appears from Exhibit AD-2.
10. The “Nutribarre Chocolat Val Nature – Chocolat Noir et Cerises”, which is shown on page 3 of Exhibit P-7.9, is a different product, with a different product ID (UPC 6563321849) and is manufactured by a different company.
11. I do not know why the picture taken in Exhibit P-7.9 shows the “Nutribarre Chocolat Val Nature – Chocolat Noir et Cerises” as being placed next to the shelf label for the “Choco Noir Nugabar”, but it appears from the picture that this product was by itself. It is possible that a customer may have inadvertently or purposely placed it there.

B. THE “GREAT VALUE ARACHIDES SUCRÉES ET SALÉES” PRODUCT MANUFACTURED BY LECLERC, A CANADIAN COMPANY

12. Paragraph 70(b) of the Authorization Application references the “Great Value arachides sucrées et salées” product (UPC 62773502179) as being a “Product of USA”.
13. This product is supplied by the Canadian company Groupe Biscuits Leclerc Inc. (“Leclerc”), headquartered in Québec. An extract of the Québec Enterprise Register for Leclerc is attached as Exhibit AD-3.

14. Leclerc has manufacturing facilities in Canada and in the United States, as shown in the extracts from Leclerc's website, attached as Exhibit AD-4.
15. This particular product may be supplied by Leclerc's manufacturing facilities in Canada or the United States. Attached as Exhibit AD-5 is the packaging of the "Great Value arachides sucrées et salées" showing that it is also a "Product of Canada" when it is manufactured by Leclerc in Canada.
16. Regardless of the manufacturing facility, the product is offered for sale at the same price. As a result, there is no price difference between the product manufactured in the United States versus the product manufactured in Canada.
17. All the facts in the present sworn statement are true to my personal knowledge.

ENJOYMENT

Making tasty treats is not a job, but a true passion. A passion passed on by managers who get down to work every day alongside their employees. It is also no coincidence that our products are so delicious. The mission of our collaborators is to produce perfect bites of pure pleasure. And because they truly have their hearts at work, they do it with pleasure.

OUR FACTORIES

A GLOBAL BUSINESS

Our cookies, snack bars, and crackers are made with care in eight facilities in Canada and the United States. We offer our customers a range of specialized products, including certified peanut- and gluten-free options. Our dedicated employees work hard day after day to bring you the highest quality products possible.
