- 7.4. If a Claimant cannot provide documentation or memorabilia to confirm that he participated in a City of Westmount Sports or Recreation program, the Defendant's archivists, Anthony Chiasson and Kayleigh Girard, will be authorized to access the information of a Claimant so that the Defendant can verify the Claimant's admissibility.
- 7.5. The Adjudicator will only be authorized to access a Claimant's information if he is called upon to resolve a dispute as to admissibility or an appeal from a Determination of Additional Compensation.
- 7.6. If paragraph 2.5(c) is triggered and the parties are unable to reach a Revised Settlement Agreement, all authorized persons except Class Counsel will destroy all the information of all Claimants in their possession.
- 7.7. The Defendant further undertakes to take measures to protect the personal information of Class Members from disclosure under any applicable law or statute.

SECTION 8 – CLAIM SUBMISSION AND ADMISSIBILITY

- 8.1. In order to obtain compensation under the Agreement, a Class Member must submit a Claim Form to Class Counsel before the expiry of the Claim Deadline. A Claim Form shall be deemed to be submitted on time if it is received by Class Counsel before the expiry of the Claim Deadline. The fax receipt confirmation, the e-mail receipt confirmation or the signed and dated acknowledgement of receipt shall constitute sufficient evidence of the date of receipt.
- 8.2. Any Class Member who fails to submit a Claim Form to Class Counsel prior to the Claim Deadline shall be prohibited from making any claim against the Released Parties in connection with the Released Claims and from receiving any compensation pursuant to the Agreement.
- 8.3. The Claim Form must include the information and documents required by Schedule F and a sworn statement from the Claimant as to the truth and correctness of their Claim.
- 8.4. Within forty-eight (48) hours from the receipt of each Claim Form, Class Counsel shall remit to Defence Counsel a copy of the Claim Form, so that the Defendant may express its point of view as to the claim's admissibility.

- 8.6. For the purposes of filing a claim under the Agreement, no Claimant will be deemed inadmissible or considered ineligible to receive any compensation set forth in the Agreement on the basis of a prescription period or any other defence.

- 8.7. If the Class Member's name is not on the List of Pre-Approved Claimants, the Defendant may object to the admissibility of a claim on the grounds that a Claimant is not a Class Member, the Claimant has failed to provide the information or documents required by Part 2 of the Claim Form, or the claim has been filed after the Claim Deadline.
- 8.8. If the Class Member's name is on the List of Pre-Approved claimants, the Class Member must submit a Claim Form but does not have to complete Part 3. The Defendant may object to the admissibility of such a claim only on the grounds that the claim was filed after the Claim Deadline or that the Claimant has failed to provide the information or documents required by Part 2 of the Claim Form.
- 8.9. If a claim is regarded as non-admissible by the Defendant because the Claimant failed to provide a complete Claim Form or where any required information or documentation is incomplete or missing, Class Counsel shall within seventy-two (72) hours contact the Claimant, with efforts to preserve the confidentiality of their claim, to indicate the deficiencies in their claim and to give the Claimant the chance to correct them within thirty (30) days of such written request, failing which the Claimant will not be able to receive any compensation under the Agreement. In order to address the concerns of Defence Counsel, Class Counsel may also give the Claimant thirty (30) days to provide a short summary of his story or the sworn statement of a witness who can confirm his admissibility.
- 8.10. If the Parties disagree on the admissibility of a claim, they may submit the issue to the Adjudicator for determination. In deciding the admissibility of a claim, the Adjudicator must base his decision exclusively on the written submissions of the Parties, the Claim Form, and any supporting documentation. The Adjudicator does not have jurisdiction to hear any other evidence or to extend the thirty (30) day delay mentioned in paragraph 8.9.
- 8.11. The Adjudicator will issue his decision on the admissibility of a claim within fifteen (15) days from the receipt of each disputed Claim Form. If he determines that a Claim is inadmissible, he will provide a short summary decision that indicates the reasons for rejection. The Adjudicator will send a copy to Class Counsel and Defence Counsel.

Where she deems it necessary, the TJL Internal Adjudicator may request additional information or documents. She will conduct her review with a view to providing a fair distribution, among eligible Claimants, of the amount above and beyond Base Compensation, using the point system set forth in the Compensation Grid (Schedule G).

- 9.3. Upon completion of her review of all claims for Additional Compensation, the TJI Internal Adjudicator will issue a summary Determination that sets out the number of points awarded, using the form of the Compensation Grid set out in Schedule G, and the reason(s) why any points are refused where necessary.
- 9.4. A Class Member may appeal his Determination of Additional Compensation to the Adjudicator, but must inform Class Counsel of the appeal within seven (7) days of receiving it. If an appeal is launched, Class Counsel will remit the Class Member's Claim Form and supporting documents to the Adjudicator within five (5) days of being informed.
- 9.5. The Adjudicator shall issue a summary Decision regarding each appeal of a Determination of Additional Compensation no later than thirty (30) days after receiving the appeal documents from Class Counsel. Where he deems it necessary, the Adjudicator may request additional information or documents from the Claimant. He will conduct his review of all appeals with a view to providing a fair distribution, among eligible Claimants, of the amount above and beyond Base Compensation, using the point system set forth in the Compensation Grid (Schedule G).
- 9.6. The Adjudicator's summary Decision must set out the number of points awarded, using the form of the Compensation Grid set out in Schedule G, and the reason(s) why any points are refused where necessary. The Adjudicator will send a copy of each Decision to the Claimant and Class Counsel.

SECTION 10 – DISTRIBUTION OF FUNDS

- 10.2. After the payment of the items listed in paragraph 10.1, Class Counsel will then set aside Base Compensation in the amount of $35,000 for each Class Member that has filed an Admissible Claim.
- 10.3. After the setting aside of Base Compensation for all Admissible Claimants in accordance with paragraph 10.2, the amount remaining in the Total Settlement Fund shall be used to determine the amount of Additional Compensation that each class member will receive.

- 10.4. Class Counsel will set aside Additional Compensation for all eligible Claimants on a pro rata basis in accordance with the following formula, up until a maximum amount of $200,000:

$$\frac{\text{Number of points awarded to the Claimant for Additional Compensation}}{\text{Sum of all points awarded to all Claimants for Additional Compensation}} \times \text{The amount remaining in the Total Settlement Fund as per paragraph 10.3 of the Agreement}$$

- 10.5. If one or more Claimants receive the maximum amount of Additional Compensation, Class Counsel will use the amount still available in the Total Settlement Fund to equally increase the Base Compensation set aside for each Admissible Claimant who have not received the maximum amount of Additional Compensation.
- 10.6. Once it has established the Base Compensation and Additional Compensation to be received by all Admissible Claimants in accordance with paragraphs 10.1 to 10.5, Class Counsel will send a letter to each Class Member indicating the Total Compensation that he obtained with a cheque for that amount and a breakdown that indicates how much he received in Base Compensation and Additional Compensation, and how many points he was awarded for Additional Compensation where applicable.

SECTION 12 – RAMQ HOLDBACK AND THE *FONDS D'AIDE AUX ACTIONS COLLECTIVES

- 12.1. The Defendant will hold back from the Total Settlement Fund $2,000 per Admissible Claim in a trust account, unless the Class Member has submitted, with their Claim Form, a Settlement and Release Agreement duly signed by the Régie de l'assurance maladie du Québec ("RAMQ") in the form attached hereto as Schedule H.
- 12.2. When no such Settlement and Release Agreement is provided with the Claim Form, the holdback amount shall be kept in a trust account by Defence Counsel, for a period of three years following the publication of the Notice of Settlement Approval. Upon expiry of this three year period, if the RAMQ has not filed a subrogated claim on behalf of any Claimant against the Defendant, the holdback amount shall be remitted to Class Counsel, in trust, for further remittance, on a pro rata basis that accounts for the Class Counsel Fee, to each Admissible Claimant. Admissible Claimants must therefore update their contact information with Class Counsel whenever necessary over this three year period and/or until they receive their full and final compensation.
- 12.3. Furthermore, Class Counsel shall remit to the Fonds d'aide aux actions collectives ("Fonds") any amount that the Fonds may have remitted or advanced to them and undertake to hold harmless and defend the Defendant and their liability insurer(s) against any claim made by the Fonds in regards to said amounts.
- 12.4. In no circumstances shall the Defendant be liable or responsible for any payment, withholding or remittal of any amount whatsoever to the Fonds. Class Counsel agree to assume the defense, hold harmless and indemnify the Defendant with respect to any Claim from the Fonds in relation to this Agreement, whether based under contract, statute, including the Act respecting the Fonds d'aide aux actions collectives, R.S.Q., ch. PROPOSED SETTLEMENT OF CLASS ACTION AGAINST THE CITY OF WESTMOUNT
FOR VICTIMS OF SEXUAL ABUSE BY JOHN GARLAND

PLEASE READ THIS NOTICE CAREFULLY AS IT MAY AFFECT YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS.

Between 1953 and 1987, John Garland worked in the City of Westmount's Parks and Recreation Department. Mr. Garland misused his position of power and trust to sexually abuse some of the children and teenagers in his care.

On June 5, 2015, the Class Representative, Mr. Benedict Matthew Bissonnette, sought permission to bring a class action against the City of Westmount on behalf of Mr. Garland's victims. While it denies any liability or wrongdoing, the City chose not to fight a lengthy legal battle with victims and rather worked with Mr. Bissonnette to find a way to settle this lawsuit and provide meaningful compensation to victims.

Mr. Bissonnette and the City are happy to inform victims that they have reached a settlement that they will present for approval to the Superior Court of Québec (Court File No. 500-06-000743-159) on (insert date) at (location).

WHAT IS THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT?

The proposed Settlement provides for the creation of a Total Settlement Fund, capped at $2.5 million (CDN), to resolve the claims of all class members.

If the Settlement is approved, Class Members can submit a claim to receive either:

A. Base Compensation of $35, 000 (CDN).

- o Base Compensation is for admissible claimants who have suffered less severe consequences after being sexually abused on a few occasions;

OR

B. Base Compensation of $35,000 + Additional Compensation.

- o Additional Compensation is reserved for admissible claimants that have suffered more severe consequences. This amount will be determined on a pro rata basis in accordance with the severity of each applicant's personal claim and the severity of all eligible claims for Additional Compensation.

The Total Settlement Fund will also be used to pay the costs associated with Notices to class members, adjudicative costs, and the fees and expenses of Class Counsel that are approved by the Court.

THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT AND CLASS COUNSEL FEES REQUIRE COURT APPROVAL

Before the Settlement becomes effective, the Superior Court of Québec must approve both the Agreement and the fees and expenses of Class Counsel, Trudel Johnston & Lespérance. The Court will review them to ensure that they are fair, reasonable and in the best interests of Class Members.

The Approval Hearing will take place on (insert date) at (time) at the Superior Court of Québec, 1 Notre-Dame Street East, room (number), in Montreal, Québec.

If you are a Class Member and do not object to the Settlement, you do not have to attend the Settlement Approval Hearing.

WHO CAN PARTICIPATE IN THE SETTLEMENT?

All persons who, from 1953 to 1987, were sexually abused by John Garland while participating in the sports or recreation programs offered by the City of Westmount

The estate of any victim who is deceased at or before the expiry of the Claim Deadline can also submit a claim under the Settlement Agreement.

WHAT IF I DISAGREE WITH THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENT?

If you disagree with the proposed settlement, you can object to it by delivering a written submission on or before (60 days from the date of dissemination of the Notice of Approval Hearing). Your objection must be sent to Class Counsel by letter, email, or fax, and include the following information:

- (a) Your full name, mailing address, telephone number, and email address;
- (b) A brief statement of the nature and reasons for your objection;
- (c) A declaration that you are a member of the Class; and
- (d) Whether you intend to appear at the Approval Hearing or intend to appear by counsel, and if by counsel, the name, address, telephone number, fax number, and email address of counsel, and
- (e) A declaration under the penalty of perjury that the foregoing information is true and correct.

Do NOT send an objection directly to the Court. Class Counsel will file copies of all objections with the Court, while preserving the confidentiality of the identity of the person submitting an objection.

EXCLUDING YOURSELF FROM THE CLASS ACTION

As part of the Settlement, the Defendant has consented to the authorization of the class action for the sole purpose of implementing the Agreement.

If you take no action, you will only be able to claim compensation under the Settlement and will lose your right to take another lawsuit against the City of Westmount.

If you want to bring your own claim at your own expense, you can deliver a written submission declaring your intention to exclude yourself from the class action, to the Superior Court of Quebec and Class Counsel by registered or certified mail at the two (2) addresses below on or before (60 days from the date of dissemination of the Notice of Approval Hearing).

RÈGLEMENT PROPOSÉ DE L'ACTION COLLECTIVE CONTRE LA VILLE DE WESTMOUNT AU NOM DES VICTIMES DES ABUS SEXUELS COMMIS PAR JOHN GARLAND

VEUILLEZ LIRE ATTENTIVEMENT CET AVIS – IL POURRAIT AFFECTER VOS DROITS.

John Garland a travaillé pour le département des loisirs et des parcs de la Ville de Westmount entre 1953 et 1987. M. Garland a abusé du pouvoir et de la confiance que lui conféraient ses fonctions afin de commettre des abus sexuels auprès de certains des enfants et des adolescents sous sa garde.

Le 5 juin 2015, le représentant, M. Benedict Matthew Bissonnette, a demandé l'autorisation d'exercer une action collective contre la Ville de Westmount au nom des victimes de M. Garland. Bien qu'elle nie sa responsabilité et nie avoir agi fautivement, la Ville a choisi de ne pas s'engager dans une longue bataille juridique avec les victimes, mais plutôt de travailler avec M. Bissonnette afin d'identifier les options permettant de régler à l'amiable sa poursuite et de fournir une compensation adéquate aux victimes.

M. Bissonnette et la Ville ont le plaisir d'annoncer aux victimes qu'ils ont conclu un règlement qui sera présenté pour approbation à la Cour supérieure du Québec (Dossier No. 500-06-000743-159) le (insérer date) à (endroit).

QUE PRÉVOIT LE RÈGLEMENT PROPOSÉ?

Le règlement proposé prévoit la création d'un « Fonds de règlement global », d'une valeur maximale de 2, 5 millions $ (CAN), en règlement des réclamations de tous les membres de l'action collective.

Si le règlement est approuvé, les membres peuvent déposer une réclamation afin de recevoir soit :

A. Compensation de base de 35 000 $ (CAN).

- o La compensation de base vise les réclamants admissibles qui ont subi des conséquences moins graves suite à des abus sexuels s'étant produits à quelques occasions;

OU

B. Compensation de base de 35 000 $ + compensation additionnelle.

- o La compensation additionnelle est réservée aux réclamants admissibles qui ont subi des conséquences plus sévères. Le montant de cette compensation sera calculé au pro rata de la sévérité de la réclamation de chaque réclamant, au regard de la sévérité de toutes les réclamations éligibles à la compensation additionnelle.

Le « Fonds de règlement global » servira également à satisfaire les coûts des avis aux membres de l'action collective, les frais d'arbitrage, ainsi que les honoraires et déboursés des procureurs des membres qui seront approuvés par le Tribunal.

LE RÈGLEMENT PROPOSÉ ET LES HONORAIRES DES PROCUREURS DES MEMBRES DOIVENT ÊTRE APPROUVÉS PAR LE TRIBUNAL.

La Cour supérieure du Québec doit approuver le Règlement et les honoraires et déboursés des procureurs des membres (le cabinet Trudel Johnston & Lespérance) afin que le Règlement puisse entrer en vigueur. La Cour devra s'assurer que le Règlement, ainsi que ces honoraires et déboursés, sont justes, raisonnables et dans le meilleur intérêt des membres visés par l'action collective.

L'audience sur cette approbation se tiendra le (date) à (heure), à la Cour supérieure du Québec, 1 Rue Notre-Dame Est, salle (numéro), à Montréal, province de Québec.

Si vous êtes membre de l'action collective et vous ne vous opposez pas au Règlement, votre présence à cette audience n'est pas nécessaire.

QUI BÉNÉFICIERA DU RÈGLEMENT?

Toutes les personnes qui, entre 1953 et 1987, ont été abusées sexuellement par John Garland alors qu'elles participaient aux programmes sportifs ou récréatifs offerts par la Ville de Westmount.

Les successions des victimes décédées le ou avant le jour de la date limite pour soumettre une réclamation peuvent également soumettre une réclamation en vertu du Règlement.

QUE PUIS-JE FAIRE SI JE SUIS EN DÉSACCORD AVEC LE RÈGLEMENT PROPOSÉ?

Si vous êtes en désaccord avec le règlement proposé, vous pouvez vous y opposer en déposant une déclaration écrite le ou avant le (60 jours après la distribution des avis). Vous devez envoyer votre avis d'opposition aux procureurs des membres par la poste, par courriel ou par télécopieur, et y inclure l'information qui suit :

- (e) Vous devez inclure une déclaration, sous peine de parjure, que l'information qui précède est véridique;

Si vous souhaitez intenter, à vos frais, votre propre poursuite, vous pouvez déposer un avis écrit déclarant votre intention de vous exclure de l'action collective auprès de la Cour supérieure du Québec et des procureurs des membres, par courrier enregistré ou recommandé, au deux (2) adresses ci-dessous le ou avant le ( 60 jours après la publication des avis).

"SCHEDULE D"

City of Westmount moves to settle with victims of sexual abuse
by its former employee, John Garland

Westmount, (date) – Between 1953 and 1987, John Garland worked in the City of Westmount's Parks and Recreation Department. Mr. Garland misused his position of power and trust to abuse sexually some of the children and teenagers in his care.

The City acknowledges that the effects of sexual abuse can last a lifetime and be devastating for victims, their families, and a community. This is particularly true when the abuse is directed at the most vulnerable among us, our children.

Protecting and ensuring the safety of our community's children is at all times a priority for the City. We are profoundly saddened and sorry that these terrible events occurred.

Mr. Garland's actions were first brought to the attention of the City in the Spring of 2015 by Class Representative, Mr. Matthew Bissonnette. The City has since worked tirelessly to understand what happened and conducted a thorough investigation into the allegations of abuse. Not only did the investigation reveal to the City what transpired during Mr. Garland's tenure at Westmount, but it also allowed it to make sure that the safeguards in place today protect the community from sexual abuse.

While the past abuse that occurred in Westmount cannot be undone, the City wishes to impact the present and the future meaningfully and positively, by being an active participant in the movement to create a society free from childhood sexual abuse. Only through a frank and open discussion of the reality of such abuse can we build a safer world for our children.

The more open we are about sexual abuse, the more comfortable it becomes for children to come forward earlier so that the abuse can stop. In short, Westmount is committed to removing the veils of secrecy, shame and denial that for decades have shrouded the issue of childhood sexual abuse.

It is with that in mind that we are issuing today's statement.

The City expresses its sincere regrets to those who were sexually abused by John Garland, and hopes that the settlement it has submitted for approval by the Superior Court of Quebec can, in some small way, help with their healing process.

Rather than fighting a lengthy legal battle with the survivors, the City chose early on to conduct an investigation, to work with Mr. Bissonnette, to find a way to provide meaningful compensation to class members and to design a simple and discreet process for victims to come forward while maintaining strict confidentiality. Mr Bissonnette has applauded the City's frank and honourable approach to the lawsuit.

Starting today, class members can contact Class Counsel, Trudel Johnston & Lespérance, to learn about the proposed settlement and how to submit an eventual claim.

All communications with Class counsel are covered by solicitor-client privilege and will remain strictly confidential.

(En-tête de la Ville de Westmount)

La Ville de Westmount en voie de régler avec les victimes abusées sexuellement par son ancien employé, John Garland.

Westmount, (date) – John Garland a travaillé pour le service des Parcs et Loisirs de la Ville de Westmount de 1953 à 1987. M. Garland a profité de l'autorité octroyée par sa position et de la position de confiance dans laquelle il se trouvait, pour abuser sexuellement de certains enfants et adolescents sous sa charge.

La Ville reconnaît que les séquelles d'un abus sexuel peuvent durer toute une vie et qu'elles sont dévastatrices pour les victimes, leurs familles et la communauté. Ceci est particulièrement vrai lorsque l'abus vise les plus vulnérables parmi nous, les enfants.

La protection et la sécurité des enfants de notre communauté est une priorité constante pour la Ville. Nous sommes profondément peiné et nous regrettons que ces événements terribles aient eu lieu.

Les gestes de M. Garland ont été portés à l'attention de la Ville au printemps 2015 par l'entremise du représentant du groupe, M. Matthew Bissonnette. La ville a depuis travaillé sans relâche pour comprendre ce qui s'est passé et pour enquêter sur les allégations d'abus. Cette démarche a non seulement révélé à la Ville ce qui s'est passé pendant les années de M. Garland à Westmount, mais elle a aussi permis d'assurer que les mesures en place aujourd'hui protègent la communauté contre les abus sexuels.

Bien que les abus passés qui se sont produits à Westmount ne puissent être effacés, la Ville souhaite avoir, aujourd'hui et pour le futur, un impact significatif et positif en participant activement dans un mouvement visant à créer une société exempte d'abus sexuels chez les enfants. Ce n'est qu'avec des discussions franches et ouvertes sur la réalité de ce type d'abus que nous pouvons construire un monde plus sûr pour nos enfants.

Ainsi, plus nous serons ouverts au sujet de l'abus sexuel et plus il sera facile pour les enfants d'en parler plus tôt pour y mettre fin. En résumé, Westmount s'engage à lever le voile sur le secret, la honte et le déni qui enveloppe depuis des décennies le sujet de l'abus sexuel chez les enfants.

Voilà ce que nous motive à émettre le présent communiqué.

La Ville exprime ses regrets sincères aux victimes d'abus sexuels de John Garland et espère que le règlement qu'elle a soumis pour approbation par la Cour supérieure du Québec pourra dans une certaine manière aider les victimes dans leur processus de guérison.

Plutôt que de mener une longue bataille juridique avec les survivants, la Ville a choisi très tôt de mener une enquête, de travailler avec M. Bissonnette, de trouver un moyen d'offrir une compensation significative aux membres de la classe, et de mettre en place un processus simple et discret pour que les victimes puissent se manifester en toute confidentialité. M. Bissonnette a applaudi l'approche franche et honorable de la Ville à l'égard de la poursuite.

Les membres du groupe peuvent dès aujourd'hui contacter les procureurs du groupe, Trudel Johnston & Lespérance, pour en savoir plus sur le règlement proposé et sur la façon de présenter une éventuelle demande.

Toutes les communications avec les procureurs du groupe sont assujetties au privilège avocat-client et demeureront strictement confidentielles.

Une ligne d'aide sans frais existe pour les victimes d'actes sexuels de tous les âges. Le service est gratuit, bilingue et un soutien confidentiel y est offert 24 heures sur 24, 7 jours par semaine, partout au Québec, au numéro: 1 888 933-9007 ou 514 933-9007 pour la région de Montréal. De l'information est également disponible à www.agressionssexuelles.gouv.qc.ca.

Content of the Letter of Apology

Dear [Class Member],

The City of Westmount has learned that you were one of a number of children and teenagers who were sexually abused by John Garland while he was working for the City. We are profoundly saddened and sorry that these terrible events occurred.

While the past abuse that occurred in Westmount cannot be undone, the City has worked tirelessly to make sure that the safeguards in place today protect the community, our children in particular, from any form of sexual abuse.

Today, we wish to express our sincere regrets to you and to all those who were sexually abused by Mr. Garland between 1953 and 1987. We are deeply sorry for the abuse that you experienced and for the damage that it has caused, not just to you but also to those close to you.

We hope this apology and the settlement of the lawsuit will help to speed the journey towards healing, reconciliation and brighter days.

Sincerely,
