Mis en cause

DATE: December 7, 2020

JUDGMENT

- (1) CONSIDERING that Plaintiff was authorized on October 30, 2013 to commence a class action (the “Action”) against Royal Bank of Canada and RBC Capital Markets Corporation (together, the “Defendants”) on behalf of the following class (the “Autorization Judgment”)¹:

“All Canadian retail investors who purchased one of the Olympus United Funds Corporation² shares (formerly First Horizon Holdings Ltd.) from June 27, 1999 to June 29, 2005, and who had outstanding shares in said corporations as of June 29, 2005, but to the exclusion of any person who is or was in any way related to John Xanthoudakis or any former director, administrator, representative or employee of the Norshield Financial Group.”;

- (2) CONSIDERING that in the Action, Plaintiff alleges, among other things, that the Norshield Financial Group offered OUFC shares to Canadian retail investors, founding the value of said shares on leveraged assets acquired by way of a structured financial product offered by Royal Bank of Canada; said structured financial product was obtained by an affiliate of Norshield through RBC's agent RBC Capital Markets Corporation (then RBC Dominion Securities Corporation);

- (3) CONSIDERING that Plaintiff also alleges that the Norshield Financial Group, among other things through the OUFC offer, defrauded the Plaintiff and Class Members of the total value of their unredeemable shares of OUFC, approximately $159,000,000 as of June 29, 2005, and that Defendants knew or ought to have known of the fraudulent investment scheme, but failed to act accordingly;
- (4) CONSIDERING that Defendants have denied and continue to deny having committed any fault or wrongdoing, deny responsibility, and challenge the validity of the allegations and damages claimed in the Action;
- (5) CONSIDERING that the principal questions of fact and law to be considered on a collective basis are identified in the Authorization Judgment as follows:
- a. Did RBC³ participate in the creation of a financial product that was used to defraud the Class Members?
 - b. Did RBC allow this fraudulent structure to evolve, thrive, and survive until $159 million were lost by Class Members?
 - c. Did RBC know or ought to have known that the Class Members were being defrauded or at serious risk of losing their investments within that structure?
 - d. Did RBC voluntarily blind itself because of the financial benefits it derived from the fraudulent structure?
 - e. Did RBC omit to refrain from continuing its collaboration with Norshield Financial Group?
 - f. Did RBC omit to inform authorities of obvious risks and irregularities they knew or should have known about within Norshield Financial Group and the Olympus investment structure?
 - g. Did RBC lend their credibility to Norshield Financial Group and the Olympus investment structure, first by providing hundreds of millions of dollars in financing, and then by offering a principal protected financial product to the Canadian public which was directly based on the fraudulent structure?

- h. Did RBC authorize transfers of funds and/or assets from the Norshield Financial structure that caused such assets to be diverted from assets that would have benefited the Group?
 - i. Does a positive answer to one or more of the questions above equate to an extra-contractual fault on the part of RBC?
 - j. If so, did RBC's fault(s) cause the losses incurred by Class members?⁴
- (6) CONSIDERING that settlement discussions between the parties commenced in August 2018 and resulted in a settlement agreement dated August 6, 2020 (the "Settlement Agreement"), exhibit R-1;
- (7) CONSIDERING that, subject to Court approval, the parties have negotiated and entered into the Settlement Agreement, without any admission of liability, to fully, definitively and permanently resolve, settle and release the Releasees (as defined in the Settlement Agreement and Release) from all Released Claims related to or connected with, directly or indirectly, whether known or unknown, the Action against Defendants by Plaintiff on her own behalf and/or on behalf of the Class she seeks to represent, to avoid the further expense, inconvenience, distraction of burdensome litigation and risks inherent to this uncertain, complex and protracted litigation, and thereby resolve this class action;
- (8) CONSIDERING that the Settlement Agreement provides for an all-inclusive monetary payment by Defendants of CAD$6,000,000 (the "Settlement Amount");
- (9) CONSIDERING that by way of her Application to Approve a Settlement Agreement, Approve Counsel's Fees and for Other Relief (the "Application"), Plaintiff seeks an order inter alia:
- a. Approving the Settlement Agreement;
 - b. Approving the Plan of Allocation;
 - c. Approving the Claim Form;
